

Citizens for the Advancement of Community Development (CACD)

in collaboration with Mississauga Valley Community Center & Library

presents

Black History Month

February is Black History Awareness Month. CACD, Mississauga Valley Community Centre & Library are playing their part by raising awareness of how Black Culture has greatly influenced our society. We will focus on Black Canadians and what they accomplished to grow Canada into a culturally diverse, compassionate and prosperous nation that we stand on today.

EVENTS

10:30 AM – 11:30

Family story time - stories

Noon – 1:00 PM

Drumming, art & craft, bead work

1:00 PM – 5:00 PM

Display of art work, craft, books, paintings,
video play of prominent black speakers

6:00 PM – 9:00 PM

Cultural music, poetry & spoken word
recitals, break dancing, cultural skits,
cultural food sampling, guest speakers

When:

February 23, 2012

Cost:

FREE

Where

Mississauga Valley Community Centre
1275 Mississauga Valley Blvd.
Mississauga, ON L5A 3R8

Contact

Ron Cunningham
Executive Director for CACD
905-361-2421